He kicked the fere part of the wagon to pieces, but Mr. Curtiss hung on to the lines and finally conquered a peace.

We had a call on Wednesday, from an old 8th Onio volunteers, residing near Kansas. He subscribed for the Journal and brought us also the name of one of his neighbors. He is red hot for Grant, mys he voted twice for Lincoln and once for Grant, and now is going to do his level best for his old general. He had a taste of Belle Isle for six months, and don't want any Greeley in his.

At Bucyrus, on the 20th, a contest came of between the Star Hook and Ladder Company of Marion, and the Buckeyes of Bucyrus About 2,000 people were present. The judges failed to agree on the time of the Buckeyes, and the result was therefore unsatisfactory The Stars made the run of 40 rods and to the top of their ladder in 36 1-2 seconds, and think the championship should be awarded them. Greeley attended a printers pic-nic, near New York, on Saturday last, and attempted to make a speech, but there was so loud an outcry for Grant that he could not be heard. He could not have received a planer hint. We may suggest that the measure was justified short time, that it "was a right smart place."
